[illegible]

A black and white line drawing of a haunted house. The house has a tall chimney on the left, a central arched doorway with a leaf-patterned door, and a window above the door with a cross design. A ghost with a sad face is peeking from behind the house. A bat is flying on the left, and a witch is on the right. The ground has rocks and a small bush. Red circles are drawn around the top of the chimney, the ghost's face, a window, a large circle to the right of the house, a small circle on the right wall, a circle on the ground to the left, and a large circle on the ground to the right.
